Outline Description	Niche of the Immaculate Conception
Property Description	Niche and statue of the Immaculate Conception showing the Madonna with hands held in prayer and a cherub at her feet. The arched niche has a cornice running along its perimeter, and scroll-buttressing with a garland on each side. The niche is located above the parapet wall of the upper storey. Below the moulded sill is cartouche with an inscription which is however, not clear. The niche is integrated in the overall design of the building's facade. A statue of St Paul is also found in this building in the corner with Triq San Guzepp.
